A MESSAGE FROM FR. DAVID

NEWS AND UPDATES

Last weekend's celebration of First Communions was glorious! To see 34 beaming children receive the Lord for the first time in the Eucharist was spectacular.

A big shout out to the families who have supported our First Communicants in the practice of the Faith. I want to also thank Nancy Caputo, Colleen Tyra, our catechists and volunteers who have lovingly accompanied our little ones to the altar.

Flocknote Launch

As part of our effort to communicate more effectively with you, this past week we launched a weekly electronic parish newsletter. The newsletter will be emailed every Thursday using our new communications platform FlockNote. The newsletter will contain parish news, event updates, and much more.

If you haven't received the emailed newsletter, there are multiple ways to sign up:

- Text To Join – text NEWSLETTER to 84576
- Connect online – www.saintjamestheapostle.flocknote.com
- Fill out a Card – you can fill out a Flocknote card at the info center in the church narthex

In addition to the email newsletter and email notifications, you can also opt-in for mobile phone text notifications for special events, Holy Day reminders, and other important communications from the parish through FlockNote.

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

In our second reading this Sunday, St. John's vision in the Book of Revelation is a game-changer when he imagines the New Jerusalem devoid of a Temple. John, however, doesn't simply dispense with the Temple. He conceives that the city itself has become the dwelling place of God. Forget the tent; lose the walls. God lives in the heart of the community outright.

For centuries Christians have built places of worship. From the most ornate cathedrals to the simplest meeting houses, faith communities have recognized the need for a space in which to come together to feel close to God. It's good to remember, though, that a temple – or what we refer to now as a church - is more than a building.

Jesus said he would be present where two or three gather in his name—regardless of where they were; Saint Peter in his first letter called Christ a living stone and told believers to be “like living stones . . . built into a spiritual house”: The emphasis is less on the bricks and more on the living stones—the people who assemble. It's wonderful to have beautiful places to worship God. And we are so fortunate here at St. James to have a beautiful church to worship in. But don't let the building do all the work. You belong to a church of living, breathing people who in this season of Easter follow their risen Lord.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

The soul does not love like a creature with created love. The love within it is divine, uncreated; for it is the love of God that is passing through it. — Simone Weil (1909-1943)

State of THE Parish MID-YEAR UPDATE

- MAY 2022 -

Message from Father David Santos

The Finance Council and I would like to provide a financial update to the State of the Parish report that was presented this past fall. Overall, as you will see in the updated State of the Parish report, there is good news to share.

One VERY IMPORTANT piece of information that you should keep in mind as you read the report is that the positive trend we are seeing could not have happened without you! As I said to you a few weeks ago in my Continuing the Conversation remarks, our successful future state can't be achieved without successful partnership.

With this good news is the very important and critical step that needs to be taken to ensure the successful future state of our parish and that is to address our large legacy debt. Currently the parish has an approximate $800,000 obligation of prior year indebtedness that needs to be managed. While zero interest is being incurred because our debt is to the Archdiocese of Newark, we have, nonetheless, a moral and stewardship obligation to address this huge amount.

For some time now the Finance Council and I have been exploring options that would tackle the debt and address the deteriorated convent building and the vacant school building. The school building is of particular concern. Short-term tenancy for use as a school does not resolve the long-term problem with a building that has a non-working heating system and windows that also need to be replaced. As you can imagine, the resources required to address just these two issues alone is beyond our resource capacity and a major deterrent for potential short-term tenants.

With two deteriorating buildings and a legacy debt of hundreds of thousands of dollars, creative solutions are called for. The Finance Council and I have been hard at work, creatively exploring our options. At the top of our list has been to create a plan to prudently develop this property that not only addresses our debt obligation but also would provide potential future revenue for the parish. The Finance Council and I have been in steady communication with the Archdiocesan Office of Property Management Administration to explore school and convent property options and to assist us in soliciting proposals for future development. More information will be shared with parish members as plans mature.

Please keep me and the parish lay leaders who have been actively involved in this exploratory process in your prayers. My hope is to provide additional information to you in the upcoming weeks.

Thanks to the hard work of our Pastoral Council, Finance Council, Parish Staff, and you, the wonderful people of St. James, we have made great strides in laying the groundwork for a successful path forward for our parish.

I can hardly share how excited and optimistic I am about what we are going to accomplish together.

Thank you and God bless you!

Rev. David C. Santos

ACTION ALERT: CATHOLIC SCHOOLS STATE FUNDING

Please Advocate for Catholic School Students in the New Jersey State Budget!

State lawmakers are negotiating the FY23 State Budget. Two issues in the budget that are important to Catholic schools are requests for increases in transportation aid – so students can get to school safely – and compensatory education – extra help for struggling students. Many of our families rely on these programs.

The NJ Network of Catholic School Families and the NJ Catholic Conference ask that you use the Voter Voice system online to email your local State Legislator to request these modest increases in the State budget. Please scan the QR code here to access the contact form. It's easy and only takes a few minutes - pre-written messages are available and all you have to do is enter your information and click send. Your voice can effect change!

Thank you for supporting the students and families of our archdiocesan Catholic Schools. For more information, contact Mary McElroy in the Office of Catholic Schools at mary.mcelroy@rcan.org.

OFFICE: (973) 376-2061
FAX: (973) 376-4079

We are excited to welcome back our First Holy Communion children today at the 12:00 Mass to lead the procession and crowning of Mary.

As the school year starts to wind down, we remind our 7th & 8th graders to record their community service reflections using the online link they were given. More Confirmation information will be shared with the parents soon. Please remember to look at the Vacation Bible Camp flyer. This week-long experience, open to children entering Kindergarten through 4th grade is coordinated by our very own Mrs. Q.

If interested or for more information, please email or call the Religious Ed Office.

Spotlight ON FAITH

Q. Why do Catholics make the sign of the Cross?

A. The sign of the cross is a devotional practice that dates back to the first Apostles. When making the sign of the cross, we remember Jesus Christ who died for us and also bear witness to the fact that we belong to him and are called to share the Good News to all the world. At our Baptism, we were signed with a cross and marked for Christ. That mark remains on us throughout the entirety of our lives. We remind ourselves of that mark every time we make the same gesture over our bodies. We also remind ourselves that to be a Christian means we are to “put on Christ” and be Christ for a world that needs to know him. In a way, this devotional gesture covers us with Christ so that others may see him in us!
