SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

TODAY IS THE FEAST OF ALL SAINTS! This is the day when the church reminds us of the thousands of men and women who took the Gospel seriously enough to live according to it and to die because of it. They are models for us to emulate, for as they used their gifts to help make the kingdom of God a reality for the people they met, we are encouraged to do the same. St. Paul has said that everyone who does the will of God is a saint. While the church may not officially recognize us as saints, we are still invited and encouraged to help others experience the presence of Christ through us.

Today's Gospel is the Sermon on the Mount. The setting is Jesus on a mountain as he speaks to his disciples. Matthew parallels this with Moses on the mountain as he receives the 10 Commandments. Jesus offers his apostles a different way to live what they believe. The Beatitudes are about how we can be faithful followers of Jesus. They are also about how we care for one another through our words and deeds.

This all sounds simple enough, but sometimes it's difficult to do. We can easily be distracted by all sorts of events and situations, including ourselves. The pandemic can be an easy excuse for not accepting the Lord's invitation because of fear of contracting COVID-19. Yet, if this pandemic has taught us anything, it is that we have to watch out for each other as well as ourselves. No matter the circumstances, the Gospel still has to be preached and lived. As the Lord keeps inviting us to come and see, come and listen, and come and experience, he still sends us forth to help make the Gospel real for others.

Imagine if the saints only wanted to preach the Gospel when it was convenient for them. Then they wouldn't be saints! They took the invitation seriously so that who they were, what they believed and how they lived reflected the invitation to proclaim the Gospel, no matter the situation. We are invited to do the same.

Tomorrow is All Souls Day. Each year we pray Evening Prayer of the Dead for members of our parish and families who have died this past year. We would also display the Book of the Dead with the names of the recently deceased. Because of COVID-19, Evening Prayer this year will be virtual, with the link on our website. The Book of the Dead will not be displayed. Since there is limited seating in the church, there will be no one in attendance. Also, the names the dead will be proclaimed at Evening Prayer and posted on the bulletin board in the Gathering Area. While this may not be acceptable to some, the purpose is to keep everyone safe. I ask for your understanding. Hopefully, things will be different next year.

HAPPY ALL SAINTS DAY!!!

FELICE FESTA DI TUTTI I SANTI!!!

FELIZ DIA DE TODOS LOS SANTOS!!!

MESSAGE FROM FR. JOE

Regarding Attending Mass during Covid-19

Dear Fellow Saint James Parishioners:

It is great to be back together in church for Mass, but things are a little different. Please don't forget to call the parish office or email me (jbarbone@msn.com) by noon on Saturdays to let us know which Mass you plan to attend. Senior citizens and those with underlying medical conditions are encouraged to remain at home and watch the Sunday online 10:30AM Mass, which we will continue to live-stream.

If you do come to church for Mass, please remember the following:

1. You must wear a mask to enter the church and you must keep your mask on at all times while in the church, including during Mass.
2. As you go from the Gathering Area into the church, please use the appropriate door to enter and exit the church.
3. Please observe the one-way aisles, which are marked with blue tape on the floor.
4. You must maintain social distancing while in the church.
5. Half of the pews have been taped off to maintain social distancing. There are pieces of blue tape on each pew where you can sit. They are also on the floor by the back walls for those who prefer to stand. This area is also marked for social distancing.
6. Family members can sit together, but everyone else must sit 6 feet apart.
7. The weekly collection baskets will not be passed from parishioner to parishioner. They will be on the baptismal font. Please drop in your donation as you enter or exit the church.
8. There is no procession of the bread and wine ("bringing up the gifts").
9. Please do not shake hands when giving the sign of peace. Instead, wave, nod, or bow slightly.
10. There are three Communion stations: one in the center, one by the organ, and one by the ambo. The ushers will direct you to maintain social distance.
11. When it is your turn to receive Communion, approach the priest or deacon, receive the Host in your hand, raise or lower your mask, and place the Host on your tongue. Immediately replace your mask over your mouth.
12. Hosts can no longer be placed directly on a parishioner's tongue by a priest, deacon, or Eucharistic Minister. You must receive the Host in your hand and place it on your tongue. There is no receiving from the Cup.
13. The candles in the Gathering Area have been turned off and they are taped.
14. There are no printed bulletins. Bulletins are posted online on the parish website.
15. The Worship books have been removed from church. You may bring your own booklet, iPad or iPhone to use during Mass.
16. You will also notice that everything that can be touched has been removed from the church. There is no Holy Water.
17. Once Mass is over, please quickly exit the church so that the pews can be sanitized for the next Mass.
18. If you want to socialize with others whom you may not have seen in a while, please do so outside of church and not in the Gathering Area.

If you have any questions or are unsure of what to do while in church, please ask an usher. I ask your patience as we attempt to navigate through all of this. We realize this is a very different situation for all of us. It can work if we work together. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Stay safe!

Congratulations to all of the Catechists and families on a successful launch of our virtual Religious Education classes! Our parish is truly blessed to have such an innovative group of people willing to think “outside the box” to bring their lessons alive on a zoom call! Although the children would rather be in class, the feedback I received from the families was overwhelmingly positive. The time and effort that the catechists are putting into their 30 minute online lessons is amazing!

All 2021 sacramental information will be sent via email before Thanksgiving!

SUNDAY READINGS ~ November 1, 2020

Visit: <http://www.usccb.org/> to receive daily Scripture Readings

FIRST READING: Book of Revelation 7:2-4. 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God.
He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea,
“Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.”
I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel.
After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue.
They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands.
They cried out in a loud voice:
“Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb.”
All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures.
They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed:
“Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen.”
Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me,
“Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?”
I said to him, “My lord, you are the one who knows.”
He said to me,
“These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress;
they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb.”

Yo, Juan, vi a un ángel que venía del oriente. Traía consigo el sello del Dios vivo y gritaba con voz poderosa a los cuatro ángeles encargados de hacer daño a la tierra y al mar.
Les dijo: “¡No hagan daño a la tierra, ni al mar, ni a los árboles, hasta que terminemos de marcar con el sello la frente de los servidores de nuestro Dios!”
Y pude oír el número de los que habían sido marcados: eran ciento cuarenta y cuatro mil, procedentes de todas las tribus de Israel.
Vi luego una muchedumbre tan grande, que nadie podía contarla. Eran individuos de todas las naciones y razas, de todos los pueblos y lenguas.
Todos estaban de pie, delante del trono y del Cordero; iban vestidos con una túnica blanca; llevaban palmas en las manos y exclamaban con voz poderosa:
“La salvación viene de nuestro Dios, que está sentado en el trono, y del Cordero.”
Y todos los ángeles que estaban alrededor del trono, de los ancianos y de los cuatro seres vivientes, cayeron rostro en tierra delante del trono y adoraron a Dios, diciendo:
“Amén. La alabanza, la gloria, la sabiduría, la acción de gracias, el honor, el poder y la fuerza, se le deben para siempre a nuestro Dios.”
Entonces uno de los ancianos me preguntó:
“¿Quiénes son y de dónde han venido los que llevan la túnica blanca?”
Yo le respondí: “Señor mío, tú eres quien lo sabe.”
Entonces él me dijo: “Son los que han pasado por la gran persecución y han lavado y blanqueado su túnica con la sangre del Cordero.”

SECOND READING: John 3:1-3

Beloved:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now;

what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

Queridos hijos:

Miren cuánto amor nos ha tenido el Padre, pues no sólo nos llamamos hijos de Dios, sino que lo somos. Si el mundo no nos reconoce, es porque tampoco lo ha reconocido a él.

Hermanos míos, ahora somos hijos de Dios, pero aún no se ha manifestado cómo seremos al fin.

Y ya sabemos que, cuando él se manifieste, vamos a ser semejantes a él, porque lo veremos tal cual es.

Todo el que tenga puesta en Dios esta esperanza, se purifica a sí mismo para ser tan puro como él.

GOSPEL: Matthew 5:1-12

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying:
“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.
Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.
Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied.
Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.
Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.
Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.”

En aquel tiempo, cuando Jesús vio a la muchedumbre, subió al monte y se sentó. Entonces se le acercaron sus discípulos. Enseguida comenzó a enseñarles, hablándoles así:
“Dichosos los pobres de espíritu,
porque de ellos es el Reino de los cielos.
Dichosos los que lloran,
porque serán consolados.
Dichosos los sufridos,
porque heredarán la tierra.
Dichosos los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia, porque serán saciados.
Dichosos los misericordiosos,
porque obtendrán misericordia.
Dichosos los limpios de corazón, porque verán a Dios.
Dichosos los que trabajan por la paz,
porque se les llamará hijos de Dios.
Dichosos los perseguidos por causa de la justicia,
porque de ellos es el Reino de los cielos.
Dichosos serán ustedes, cuando los injurien, los persigan y digan cosas falsas de ustedes por causa mía. Alégrese y salten de contento, porque su premio será grande en los cielos.”

Gospel Reflection:

Matthew 5:1-12

The beatitudes are a sign of contradiction to the world's way of happiness

The beatitudes which Jesus offers us are a sign of contradiction to the world's understanding of happiness and joy. How can one possibly find happiness in poverty, hunger, mourning, and persecution? Poverty of spirit finds ample room and joy in possessing God as the greatest treasure possible. Hunger of the spirit seeks nourishment and strength in God's word and Spirit. Sorrow and mourning over wasted life and sin leads to joyful freedom from the burden of guilt and spiritual oppression.

God reveals to the humble of heart the true source of abundant life and happiness. Jesus promises his disciples that the joys of heaven will more than compensate for the troubles and hardships they can expect in this world. Do you know the happiness of hungering and thirsting for God alone?

Lord Jesus, increase my hunger for you and show me the way that leads to everlasting peace and happiness. May I desire you above all else and find perfect joy in doing your will.

Prayer
Ask. Seek. Knock.

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

JOIN US ON FACEBOOK OR YOUTUBE

Here are a few suggestions on how to fully celebrate even while at home:

- ◆ Create a prayerful space to watch the livestream.
- ◆ Decorate a table with a picture of your loved one, Rosary beads, small statues of Jesus or Mary, to help remind us of God.
- ◆ Fully participate in the Prayer Service by singing, saying the responses out loud, standing, and kneeling if you are able.
- ◆ When your loved ones name is said, light your candle.
- ◆ Print or download the worship aid from our parish website: <https://saintjamestheapostle.org>
Worship Aide for All Souls Evening Prayer

A few reminders for watching from home:

You do not need a Facebook account to watch the livestream, since the Saint James the Apostle page is a public page. A message may pop up asking you to sign in or create an account, but you should be able to close out of it. We are also broadcasting on YouTube!

If there are any issues with the video during Mass, try closing the video and clicking on the link again.

Saints of the Week.....

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, (All Souls Day), November 2.

Catholics believe that death can separate people who they love from them for only a while. We are still united with them in the Communion of Saints. On this feast of All Souls, and throughout the entire month of November, we recall our deceased relatives, friends, and all the faithful departed who may yet be waiting for the full joy of heaven in purgatory. We pray for them, remembering that likewise these people being purified have the power to intercede for us too.

Memorial of Saint Charles Borromeo, November 4.

St. Charles Borromeo (1538-1584), Cardinal of the Holy Roman Catholic Church and Archbishop of Milan from 1565 to 1583, was described in the decree for his canonization, as “a man, even while the world smiles on him with the utmost flattery, he lives crucified to the world, spiritually, trampling earthly things, seeking continuously the things of heaven, emulating the life of the Angels on earth, in his thoughts and actions. (Paolo V, Bolla « Unigenitus » del 1 Nov. 1610).

THE PRAYER CORNER

"To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose..."

INTENTIONS FOR THE SICK

At the General Intercessions we pray for the sick. Our prayers for the sick are very important, especially in critical times of sudden illness, surgery or worsening condition. We will continue to pray for and mention the names of the sick. When the condition improves, please call the Rectory so that the name can be removed from the list.

COMMUNION AT MASS

If you cannot walk up the aisle to receive Holy Communion and do not want to sit in the first pew, please let one of the ushers know and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will come to you at the end of the procession and administer the Body & Blood to you.

RECEIVING COMMUNION

A reminder that during the Covid-19 restrictions, the Eucharist can only be received in the hands. It is good to remind ourselves of the reverence needed when we receive the Body and Blood of Christ.

When we approach the altar please remove any gloves beforehand.
Remember to bow slightly without being ostentatious and reply "Amen".
If communion runs out, please wait in line for the Minister to return.

The ushers are available to assist you during the reception of Holy Communion and before / after Mass.

A Prayer for Persons Suffering from the Coronavirus

*Merciful God, hear our fervent prayer for all who suffer from the coronavirus.
May those who are infected receive the proper treatment and the comfort of your healing presence.
May their caregivers, families and neighbors be shielded from the onslaught of the virus.
Give solace to those who grieve the loss of loved ones.
Protect and guide those who strive to find a cure, that their work may conquer the disease and restore communities to wholeness and health.
Help us to rise above fear. We ask all this through the intercession of Our Lady of Lourdes, and in the name of your Son, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit, now and forever.
Amen.*

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Under the Guidance of the Holy Spirit as a Welcoming and Diverse Community,

We, the Parish of Saint James the Apostle

Invite All to Worship as We Celebrate the Eucharist, Proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ and Serve the Needs of One Another, as We Help Build the Kingdom of God on Earth.
