November 3, 2019

THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MESSAGE FROM THE PASTOR

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEWLY CONFIRMED YOUNG PEOPLE!!! They celebrated the Sacrament of Confirmation yesterday with Bishop Cruz. Now they have a responsibility to us all to give the gift of Jesus to us, guided by the Holy Spirit!

CONGRATULATIONS TO HUGH KEFFER!!! Tonight, at the parish of Notre Dame, North Caldwell, Hugh will be formally enrolled as a deacon candidate as he continues to ordination. He will be ordained a deacon on Sunday, May 17, 2020.

We continue this Month of Remembrance of our departed relatives, friends and parishioners. The church sets aside this month to honor all those who have touched and affected us with their care, concern, love, affection and faith. On TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5, AT 7:30PM, we will celebrate Evening Prayer of the Dead for all those from our parish and families who died this past year. The names of all those from our parish who died this year are posted in the Book of the Dead, which is placed near the Baptismal Font, for they now share eternal life with the Father and Son.

In today's Gospel, Jesus meets Zacchaeus, who was anxious to meet Jesus. Zacchaeus was a tax collector, which means he worked for the Romans who occupied the land on which he lived and worked. Tax collectors like Zacchaeus were despised, not just because they collected taxes, but also because they collected bribes over and above the taxes. Yet, Jesus meets and talks with him, offering him the opportunity for new life.

Jesus offers us the same opportunity for new life every time we are open and receptive to his new life. It is an encounter with the Lord that transforms us and renews us in his image. But it also challenges us to be a vibrant sign of his new life to all we meet. Most of our conversions are not as dramatic as Zacchaeus's was, because they usually reinforce what we believe and how we live. Our conversions may mean a change of heart, attitude, or the way we speak and behave toward each other. But they are just as serious and important as what happened to Zacchaeus.

Jesus always calls us to new life, to holiness and conversion, so that we may live according to his way and not our own.

HAPPY NOVEMBER!!!

~ FR. JOE

Today's Gospel Meditation.....

Luke 19:1-10

What would you do if Jesus knocked on your door and said, "I must stay at your home today"? Would you be excited or embarrassed? Jesus often "dropped-in" at unexpected times and he often visited the "uninvited" the poor, the lame, and even public sinners like Zacchaeus, the tax collector! Tax collectors were despised and treated as outcasts, no doubt because they over-charged people and accumulated great wealth at the expense of others.

Why would Jesus single him out for the honor of staying at his home? Zacchaeus needed God's merciful love and forgiveness. In his encounter with Jesus he found more than he imagined possible. He shows the depth of his repentance by deciding to give half of his goods to the poor and to use the other half for making restitution for fraud. Zacchaeus' testimony included more than words. His change of heart resulted in a change of life, a change that the whole community could experience as genuine.

"Lord Jesus, come and stay with me. Fill my life with your peace, my home with your presence, and my heart with your praise. Help me to show kindness, mercy, and goodness to all, even to those who cause me ill-will or harm."

Writer's Workshop in Grade 2 and Grade 3

This month in Writer's Workshop Ms. Martino's 2nd graders have been focusing on using transitional words in their "How-to" writing. This was connected to their reading unit based on sequence of events in a story.

Ms. Martino's students explored a variety of topics of "how to" such as how to wash hands, how to draw a panda and how to brush teeth.

One hands-on mini-lesson involved carving a pumpkin. As a class, students discussed the steps needed to carve a pumpkin. The steps were written on the board and the students were able to follow them using a large pumpkin brought in by their teacher. As they followed the step by step directions, they discovered some steps needed to be revised or put in the correct sequence. When they were done carving the pumpkin, the class reflected on the experience and wrote their own "How to Carve a Pumpkin" piece.

Mrs. Graca's 3rd graders have been learning about descriptive and persuasive writing. Inspired by the season, the piece was written to convince potential buyers to purchase a haunted house! After drafting, editing, revising and publishing, the students applied their artistic talent to seal the deal. Using paint and a gradual shading process, each student created an eerie night scene and added a paper haunted house to complement their written selection.

In honor of All Saints Day, classroom doors will feature a notable saint throughout the month of November. There are 15 saints in all. Featured are patron saints of academic subject areas, children, animals, friendship and of course, our school. Come and see our Saints on Parade.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

"Through this holy anointing may the Lord in His love and mercy help you, with the grace of the Holy Spirit."

On Saturday, November 16 , during a special 11:00AM Mass, we will celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick.

All are invited to attend this Mass. Those who are elderly, ill and/or facing impending surgery or hospitalization are invited to receive the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick. Those receiving the Sacrament should also be baptized Catholics who have reached the age of reason. Please join us.

Members of the Prayer Shawl Ministry have handmade blessed shawls that will be distributed to those being anointed.

Among the seven sacraments there is one especially intended to strengthen those who are being tried by illness and to provide them with the strongest means of support. This sacrament is called the Anointing of the Sick. This sacrament, as with all the sacraments, is performed to convey God's grace to the recipient, through the power of the Holy Spirit. The anointing of the sick conveys several graces and imparts gifts of strengthening in the Holy Spirit against anxiety, discouragement, and temptation, and conveys peace and fortitude . Thus the sick person is able to bear suffering bravely.

THE PRAYER CORNER

"To everything there is a season and a time for every purpose..."

INTENTIONS FOR THE SICK

At the General Intercessions we pray for the sick. Our prayers for the sick are very important, especially in critical times of sudden illness, surgery or worsening condition. We will continue to pray for and mention the names of the sick. When the condition improves, please call the Rectory so that the name can be removed from the list.

HOSPITAL VISITATIONS

If you or someone you know is in the hospital, please inform the hospital staff that you are Catholic and a member of Saint James the Apostle Church. Saint James will be notified and arrangements will be made for a priest or deacon to visit you. Please be sure to include the hospital information.

Contact the Rectory to have a name added to the prayer list at Mass and/or to the Prayer Line.

RECEIVING COMMUNION

It is good to remind ourselves of the reverence needed when we receive the Body and Blood of Christ. When we approach the altar, if receiving on the hand, please remove any gloves beforehand.

Remember to bow slightly without being ostentatious and reply "Amen".

If communion runs out, please wait in line for the Minister to return.

COMMUNION AT MASS

If you cannot walk up the aisle to receive Holy Communion and do not want to sit in the first pew, please let one of the ushers know and an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion will come to you at the end of the procession and administer the Body & Blood to you.

Please join us in prayer for the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament with Miraculous Medal Novena, Rosary and Benediction on Monday evenings (as scheduled) in our Church.

All are welcome!

Join us: Monday, November 4, 2019 at 6:30PM
