PASTOR'S COLUMN

Reflection on the Readings

There is something about a voice that is so expressive...

I remember when my mother would pray over my twin brother and I each night before we went to bed. Her voice was comforting and peaceful, not just because it was my mother's, but because I knew that what she wanted for me was good. Well, when I got older her voice had a different effect - more of a nagging effect...LOL...(don't tell her that I said that).

Voices are significant in our communication as persons. But to know what makes the voice so effective in communication is our ability and willingness to LISTEN!!!

The story is told of Franklin Roosevelt, who often endured long receiving lines at the White House. He complained that no one really paid any attention to what was said. One day, during a reception, he decided to try an experiment. To each person who passed down the line and shook his hand, he murmured, "I murdered my grandmother this morning." The guests responded with phrases like, "Marvelous! Keep up the good work. We are proud of you. God bless you, sir." It wasn't till the end of the line, while greeting the ambassador from Bolivia, that his words were actually heard. Unperturbed, the ambassador leaned over and whispered, "I'm sure she had it coming."

Our lives are such that we are often too busy and too distracted to hear the voices of those around us, never mind the voice of God! And maybe we clearly hear the voices of other people, but do we hear the voice of God? If God spoke to you, would you know that it was Him who was speaking?

I know my mother and father's voice because both raised me, and so I am familiar with their voices. But are we familiar with the voice of God in our life? Are you able to tell when He speaks???

In today's Gospel passage, Jesus compares himself to a shepherd, and the Church to the sheep of His flock. Jesus teaches us something about who God is, and He wants us to see the interaction between those who know God and His voice, and those who do not.

We heard, "And the sheep hear His voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out." This is a very familiar scene in the ancient world. The shepherd calling to his sheep. The shepherd may call by name or by a particular vocalization and the sheep would hear and they'd follow him. They wouldn't follow other voices.

Here's the point: it is so easy to render God abstract. To see God as distant; a God who is off doing "god" things, not really interested in what we do or who we are. Sometimes we think of Him kind of like we think of the "force" from the famous Star Wars saga. A "force" that runs through all things, etc. But the message of the Bible is that God has a voice; God speaks to us! He speaks to you and me, we who were built by Him to listen. We've been built to hear his voice.

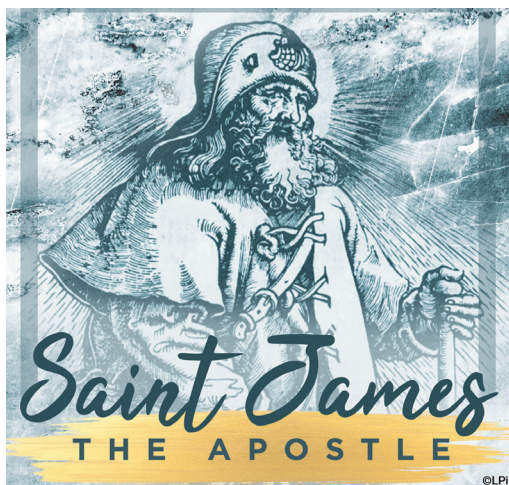

You and I, by nature, are ordered to God...we are born to hear Him. Our God communicates with us personally, directly, powerfully, creatively and with purpose.

How does God "speak"? Where can we hear His voice?

Well, we hear God's voice in many places, but we hear Him always in:

- The Scriptures, the Bible
- Through the teaching of the Church
- Through the lives of the Saints
- Through the liturgy
- and through the conscience.

SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Acts 2:14, 36-41

"Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit."

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:20-25

If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you...

Gospel Acclamation: John 10:14

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Gospel: John 10:1-10

Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly.

Visit www.usccb.org to access full Mass readings online.

Friends, today God is speaking to you and me. Through His word in the inspired Scriptures - Did we really listen to Him speak to us? Do we seek to understand or even know what it is that the Church teaches, understanding that she is supported, guided and protected by the Holy Spirit? God speaks to us in our conscience. Do we listen to that "voice" inside of us that instructs us on what is good and bad, right and wrong?

Friends, we are God's children, and He is always speaking to us, but do we listen for His voice? I pray that you and I may recognize God's voice in our lives! Listen for Him, for He surely is speaking to you!

Update Regarding Holy Communion

The outbreak of the Covid-19 Pandemic in 2020 required a temporary reduction of liturgical practices in the celebration of the Eucharist and administration of the sacraments. Until now, the only liturgical restriction remaining within the archdiocese is the prohibition regarding the reception of Holy Communion from the chalice. The archdiocese has asked all parishes to begin offering Communion under both kinds (bread and wine) beginning as early as Holy Thursday, April 6th, but no later than Pentecost Sunday, May 28th.

Here at St. James, before offering Communion from the chalice, I'd like to have some time for catechesis and preparation for the reception of the Precious Blood from the chalice. This will also be a time to foster the full participation of the faithful in the Mass.

It has been close to three years since Communion from the chalice has been offered at Mass. Rediscovering the sign value of Communion under both kinds (bread and wine) is important for us as a community of faith. Why? Because, as our Church teaches us, every effort is to be made to ensure that "the faithful should receive the Body of Christ from hosts (bread) consecrated at Mass and partake of the chalice (wine), so that even by means of the signs, Communion may stand out more clearly as a participation in the sacrifice actually being celebrated" (Sacrosanctum Concilium, 55, and the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, 85).

Over the next few weeks, you'll find in our parish bulletin a series of articles which have been prepared by the Worship Office of the Archdiocese of Newark. These articles will help to catechize and prepare our community for the full participation of the faithful in the Mass. Our Eucharistic Ministers will be receiving careful training as we prepare for the reintroduction of the Communion chalice this Pentecost Sunday, May 28th.

While many communicants have waited in anticipation for the reintroduction of Communion from the chalice, there are others for whom Communion from the chalice is not desirable. Please know that while it is necessary for the church to provide the option of receiving Communion under both kinds (bread and wine) so that participation in the sacrifice of Jesus' Body and Blood is manifested, communicants are not obligated to receive both kinds (bread and wine).

As we continue to emerge from a period of necessary adjustment resulting from the COVID-19 Pandemic, we welcome this liturgical step forward which affords the lay faithful the opportunity to receive both the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ at Mass.

Fr. David Santos, Pastor

Saint James is Giving Back to Springfield. Can you Lend a Helping Hand?

A few years ago, Saint James adopted a plot of land called Dr. Eckel's Island in Springfield, just down the street from our parish. The parish is responsible for cutting the grass, trimming the euonymus shrubs, and weeding. A small team of parishioners has been working to maintain the island throughout the Spring and Summer months. We could use more help this year.

If you would like to be a part of the maintenance team, please email outdoorministry@saintjamesparish.org. Thank you for your consideration. God bless.

OFFICE PHONE: (973) 376-2061

Today Family Faith families gather for the last session before summer vacations begin. We hope the families will keep the Spirit alive in their homes through prayer and service to others during the summer months. We are looking forward to meeting with the parents at our wrap up meeting on Wednesday, May 24th to hear your feedback and ideas for enriching the program.

This coming weekend we welcome the Communicants to the Table of our Lord for the first time! We are so proud and excited for you!
