REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

Normally we gain knowledge through our five senses. We see something, hear something, taste, smell, or feel something, and as a result, come to know that something is. Physical knowledge is very reliable and is the normal way we come to know things. But today, as we celebrate the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord in the temple, we look to the example of Simeon, and we are reminded that there is another different, deeper, spiritual knowledge.

At the time of Jesus' birth, there was a man named Simeon who had spent his whole life preparing for one significant moment. Like many faithful Jews at the time, Simeon was waiting for the coming Messiah. The Holy Spirit had revealed to him that he would indeed see the Messiah before his death—and this happened when Mary and Joseph brought Jesus into the Temple to offer Him to the Lord as an infant.

Try to imagine the scene... Simeon had lived a holy and devout life. Deep within his soul he knew that his life on earth would not end until he was privileged to see the Savior of the World with his own eyes. He knew this by a special gift of faith, an interior revelation of the Holy Spirit, and he believed it.

This truth begs the question - which type of knowledge is more certain? Something you see with your eyes; that you touch with your hands, smell, hear, or taste? Or something that God speaks to you in the depths of your soul?

NEWS and UPDATES

For over two years I have worked with parishioners from the St. James Campus Redevelopment Committee and personnel from the Archdiocese of Newark on a campus redevelopment plan with the goal of finding the most beneficial use of the St. James school and convent properties. We are proud to announce that the contract of sale for the St. James school and convent property was signed by Fr. David, the Archdiocese, and the Buyer of the property!

The Buyer has asked us not to disclose their identity for the time being, however, we are able to say that the Buyer is a private school that serves children with learning differences. We can also say that the Buyer will keep the school building intact.

During this time of due diligence, township approvals, and the initiation of a major parish capital campaign, Fr. David will host two parish Town Hall sessions for parishioners to hear more about the plan for the sale of the property and the construction of a new parish center.

The first session will be on Sunday, February 16th after the 12pm Mass in the church.

The second session will be on Wednesday, February 19th at 7pm in the church.

Friends, please know how excited I am to present the plan to the parish. Thank you for your continued support and loving prayers!

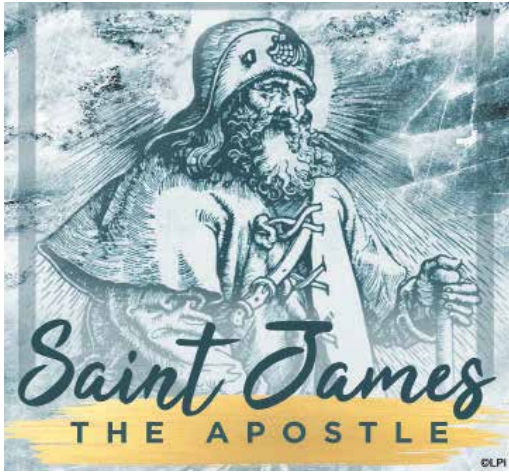

Fr. David C. Santos, Pastor

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION 2024-2025

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Malachi 3:1-4

"But who will endure the day of his coming? And who can stand when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire, or like the fuller's lye. He will sit refining and purifying silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, Refining them like gold or like silver that they may offer due sacrifice to the LORD. Then the sacrifice of Judah and Jerusalem will please the LORD, as in the days of old, as in years gone by.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 24

Who is this king of glory? It is the Lord!

SECOND READING

Hebrews 2:14-18

Surely he did not help angels but rather the descendants of Abraham; therefore, he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every way, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest before God to expiate the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

GOSPEL

Luke 2:22-40 or 2:22-32

He came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to perform the custom of the law in regard to him, he took him into his arms and blessed God, saying: "Now, Master, you may let your servant go in peace, according to your word, for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples: a light for revelation to the Gentiles, and glory for your people Israel."

Full Mass readings can be accessed at usccb.org

7 KEY TERMS FOR THE JUBILEE 2025

Pope Francis has promulgated the Bull of Indiction for the Jubilee Year 2025. But what does it all mean? Here to help you, we offer a short glossary of some of the ecclesiastical terminology that might be confusing.

Jubilee

The Jubilee — or "Holy Year" — is a Catholic Church event now celebrated every 25 years. It is inspired by a Jewish tradition: in the Old Testament, the Law of Moses established a "year of grace" every 50 years, during which all slaves were freed, all debts were forgiven, and the land was left to rest.

Since the first ordinary Jubilee, instituted by Pope Boniface VIII in 1300, it has been customary for the faithful to flock to Rome during this special year, to experience God's forgiveness. As they are now held every 25 years, this is the first ordinary jubilee since the Great Jubilee of the Year 2000.

There are also "extraordinary" Jubilees, such as the one Pope Francis declared in 2015 on the theme of mercy, or the one in 1933 for the 1,900th anniversary of Jesus' death and resurrection. The Church will also celebrate an extraordinary Jubilee for the 2,000th anniversary of this event, in the year 2033.

Holy Door

Each of the four Roman major basilicas — St. Peter's, St. John Lateran, St. Mary Major, and St. Paul Outside the Walls — houses a "Holy Door," the symbol par excellence of the Jubilee Year. It represents Jesus, who declares in the Gospel, "I am the door. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved."

By passing through these Holy Doors at the end of their pilgrimage, the faithful make a gesture of faith and spiritual encounter with Jesus, and receive an "indulgence." Other Holy Doors may be opened around the world for local Jubilees. For the 2015-2016 Jubilee, the Pontiff chose to open the first Holy Door in Bangui, Central African Republic.

St. Peter's Holy Door

Of all the Holy Doors, St. Peter's is the most important. It is only opened by the Pope at the time of jubilees, and has marked their beginning since 1500. This door bears 16 bas-relief panels telling the story of humanity's redemption, from the first sin to Jesus. It is usually sealed from inside the basilica by a brick wall, in which the box containing its keys is locked. Today, this wall is demolished a few days before the opening ceremony, and the pope no longer wields a hammer as in the old rite. Instead, he simply symbolically pushes the door open.

Indulgence

During the Jubilee, the faithful can receive indulgences. According to the Catholic faith, indulgences are remissions of the punishment people have incurred for their sins. An ancient practice in Christianity, indulgences are a sign of God's forgiveness.

In concrete terms, there are two types of indulgence: "partial," which consists of a partial remission of the purification of purgatory, and "plenary," which exempts the faithful completely from the time due to be spent in purgatory. According to the Catholic faith, the faithful who die right after having received a plenary indulgence go directly to heaven. To benefit from an indulgence, however, the faithful must meet certain conditions. Usually, at the very least they are required to go to confession, attend Mass, and pray according to the pope's intentions.

Bull of indiction

The Jubilee is proclaimed by a "papal bull of indiction," which sets out the dates of the Jubilee year and the ways in which it will be implemented in Rome and around the world. The term "bull" (from the Latin bullā, round object) originally indicated the metal capsule used to protect the wax seal affixed to a papal document of particular importance, to attest its authenticity and therefore authority. Over the centuries, the term was used to indicate first the seal, then the document itself. Today, a bull is a letter from the head of the Catholic Church, written in solemn form — often in Latin. As is often the case with papal texts, the bull takes its name from the first words of the letter. It's stamped with the seal of the reigning pontiff.

Major basilica

The title of "basilica" is given by the pope to certain churches, either because they house the relics of a saint, or because they are of particular importance to the faithful. Among the basilicas, four in Rome — St. Peter's, St. John Lateran, St. Mary Major and St. Paul Outside the Walls — have a privileged status: that of "major" basilicas. They are also known as "papal" basilicas, because they are the property of the Holy See and are directly attached to the pope. The cathedral of the Diocese of Rome is the Basilica of St. John Lateran, not St. Peter's Basilica.

Pilgrimage

Pilgrimage is one of the most important aspects of a Jubilee. The faithful are invited to set out on a "quest for meaning in life," explains Pope Francis in the Bull of Indiction for the Ordinary Jubilee of the Year 2025. Over the centuries, many pilgrims have made the journey to Rome on foot — at least in part — during the Jubilee years.

In the Eternal City, various itineraries are planned for 2025, notably around seven churches — in this case, the four major basilicas, as well as St. Lawrence Outside the Walls, Holy Cross in Jerusalem and St. Sebastian Outside the Walls — and two "European" itineraries, following in the footsteps of the countries and saints of the continent.
