PASTOR'S COLUMN

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

It's cool how many things in life bring us back...when something or someone or someplace reconnects us to what came before and to what makes us, us.

One of those things for me is country music.

Country music bringing me back, and not just to the simple things in life like...agriculture and tractors, but important things like family and faith...It helps me connect to my roots! Here's a country music song you may be familiar with:

Roots, Zac Brown Band

My roots always keep me grounded; Roots, remind me where I'm from. Even when I'm a thousand miles away from my roots, I'm home. Ooh, I wouldn't change a thing; It made the man I am today.

Whether it's music, art, sports, literature, history, objects, locations, sounds... they all have the power to evoke memories, re-awaken emotions, and stir passions that help us to remember that which has contributed to making you the person you are today...just like Zac Brown so poetically reveals in his song Roots: Ooh, I wouldn't change a thing. My roots...made the person I am today.

As this is true in our physical life, so it is in our spiritual life.

Our spiritual life has roots as well. In fact, that's one of the reasons why what we do here (in church) is so important...it keeps us connected to our spiritual roots! Holy Mass, the readings, the songs, and the prayers - like Country Music - brings us back to our roots.

Imagine a beautiful rose growing in a garden. While rooted in the ground, the flower receives nourishment, protection - life. If you cut the flower at its stem, sure, it'll maintain its beauty and vitality, but only for a short time. It can't survive without its roots, at least not in the same way that God intended it. It needs to be connected to its roots, to that which gives it life! And so it is true in our spiritual lives...

Being here, together, is indispensable:

Here we hear the stories, from the Old Testament and New, that help us to remember who we are and from where we come.

Here we can reconnect with the source that gives our spiritual lives meaning and substance.

Most importantly, here we are reminded - just as the ancient Israelites in their return from exile - who God is and what He has done for us!

Friends, here are a few questions for us to carry with us throughout this week:

- What are the roots in your spiritual life that keep it alive and growing?
- Parents, what are you doing in your home to build the spiritual roots of your children? The Church can do what the Church does, but nothing can replace the role of a parent in nurturing a child's spiritual roots.

PASTOR'S COLUMN CONTINUED

Brothers and Sisters in Christ, what are each of us doing to protect and to grow the roots that keep us connected to God and His Church?

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

"Today is holy to the LORD your God. Do not be sad, and do not weep"— for all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the law. He said further: "Go, eat rich foods and drink sweet drinks, and allot portions to those who had nothing prepared; for today is holy to our LORD. Do not be saddened this day, for rejoicing in the LORD must be your strength!"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 19

Your words, Lord, are Spirit and life.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 12:12-30 or
1 Corinthians 12:12-14, 27

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

GOSPEL

Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

He came to Nazareth, where he had grown up, and went according to his custom into the synagogue on the sabbath day. He stood up to read and was handed a scroll of the prophet Isaiah. He unrolled the scroll and found the passage where it was written: The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim liberty to captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim a year acceptable to the Lord.

Full Mass readings can be accessed at usccb.org

SAINT JAMES GIVES BACK TO THE COMMUNITY

St. James the Apostle Church in Springfield, held its third annual "5K for Thanks" on Thanksgiving morning, celebrating its largest turnout to date with 370 registered participants. Undeterred by the rain, runners and walkers enthusiastically completed the 3.1-mile course, kicking off their holiday with community spirit and gratitude.

This event would not have been possible without the support of this year's sponsors, the generous parishioners of St. James, and the dedicated efforts of Chief John Cook and the Springfield Police Department, Scott Seidel and the Springfield Auxiliary Police, the Springfield First Aid Squad, and the many volunteers who gave their time and energy.

As part of its tradition, St. James Church donates 10% of the net proceeds to a local community organization in gratitude for their support. This year, the Springfield Auxiliary Police was the chosen recipient. Father David Santos, Pastor of St. James the Apostle Church, presented a check for $1,329.58 to Scott Seidel in recognition of their invaluable contributions to the community.

Thank you to everyone who participated, supported, and contributed to making the 2024 "5K for Thanks" an unforgettable success. We look forward to seeing you at this year's event!

PRAYING IS AN ART TO LEARN: WHAT DOES JESUS TEACH?

We are God's children. One of the things he teaches us is how to pray.

One day when Jesus had finished praying, one of his disciples asked him, "Lord, teach us to pray" (Lk 11:1). And Jesus taught them the Our Father. Just what does the Lord teach us in the Lord's Prayer?

If we start at the end, we realize that even the least God-minded person at times is moved to pray. And what prompts that prayer is the burden of evil. Think of how the churches in America were packed the days following 9/11. Those people were convinced of the existence of Something Even Greater than evil, and they put their belief in it through prayer. We cannot abolish evil, but Jesus teaches us a way of not being alone with it.

We need run-ins with temptation to show us where we are weak. Trials purify us. In the petition "lead us not into temptation," Jesus is teaching us to use the experience of temptation well: not overestimating our capacities, not becoming discouraged or despairing. Jesus teaches us to recognize the limits of our strength so that we can entrust ourselves to his strength with confidence.

Jesus teaches that forgiveness is the heart of the disciple's prayer. We are to ask for forgiveness, and to offer forgiveness even as the Father does on Calvary (Lk 23:34). If God is love, the world comes to know it through the mercy we both embrace and spread.

In instructing us to ask God to give us each day our daily bread, Jesus teaches us that holiness is dependency. We cannot be ourselves without Another. To be a disciple is to be abandoned to divine providence, moment by moment, with a certainty and trust that nourishes us like nothing else. The bread we ask for is our happiness.

Jesus teaches us that there is a way out of the misery that comes from being stuck in our own ideas and plans. Thy will be done expresses the joy of surrendering to God's designs. Discipleship means following Another in sacrificial obedience which is more like likeness to him than submission.

By praying the petition thy Kingdom come, Jesus teaches us to put to the side the preoccupations and struggles of our own personality which distract and deter us so that God and his goodness — his governing power — can reign in us. The Lord is teaching us to claim the awesome unity made possible only in him.

Jesus teaches us that we are not to live left to ourselves: that we are part of a belonging, an identity, a Name from which we draw unflinching sustenance, blessing, order, and grace. In the Father's name is our authentic self. Jesus teaches us to pray Hallowed be thy name in order to lift us out of our own limitations so to live in the Truth.

To pray Our Father is to imitate Jesus himself as he enters into his Passion (Mk 14:36). We are God's children. When we pray calling out to the Father, even the full powers of hell unleashed against us stand no chance. Jesus teaches us to confide in the mystery of the Father's name so that, enfolded in intimacy with the Father, the hundredfold harvest of heaven will be generated in our here and now.

We Are His Witnesses: A Pastoral Letter from Cardinal Tobin

As we welcome the New Year, Cardinal Tobin invites all Catholics in the Archdiocese of Newark to read We Are His Witnesses, his pastoral letter outlining new pathways for the future of the Archdiocese. Rooted in Pope Francis' call for pastoral conversion, missionary discipleship, and synodality, the letter reflects on our shared journey of faith and calls us to embrace renewal, collaboration and missionary outreach. This multi-year initiative will guide us in shaping a vibrant, hopeful future for our Church community.

Read We Are His Witnesses and join this journey of faith as we respond to Christ's call to be His witnesses in the world.

ACCOUNTABILITY WITH HEARTFELT THANKS

Catholic Charities received $1,144 as a result of your generosity to our Donation Bin(s) at your Church from June 1, 2024 to November 30, 2024. These funds combined with monies from other parishes in the same program throughout the Archdiocese enable Catholic Charities to provide shelter to 590 people every night at our seven homeless shelters throughout the Archdiocese (FY23/24). The advent of the cold weather increases the demand for our services at these shelters. Thank you for being our partner and enabling us to bring Christ's love to the most vulnerable in our society.
