PASTOR'S COLUMN

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

Today's Feast of the Epiphany tells two stories. The first story is about the world with an all-too-common theme: a power-hungry, politically ambitious ruler who was motivated by greed and the maintenance of rule. The second story is one of faith and the search for truth. And I think that these are two stories that we can all relate to.

It's not hard to see that Herod was someone who was overly preoccupied with the things of this world. He was concerned with how best to leave his mark and maintain his power; he was pensive with how history was going to remember him. The Magi, on the other hand, look to the sky beyond their immediate world – beyond themselves - in search of truth.

We can say that they follow this inner impulse of a God that led them on an incredible adventure.

I think that it's obvious that the Church wishes us to associate ourselves with these Magi, in the hopes of being led by that same inner impulse leading to the Christ child in a manger. But maybe there's a part of us that can relate to Herod and his preoccupation with the things of the world, things that can make our journey towards God less of a priority. Therefore, a good and sober question to ask ourselves on this feast is: What is it that's keeping us from progressing on our journey of faith?

Friends, in the life of every person - especially the Christian - there's this interior "star," if you will, which calls us and leads us to Christ. But the trick is we must LOOK UP and recognize its presence!

The "star" of our faith is always in the night sky of our lives.

May you and I acknowledge its presence by looking up, by walking humbly like the Magi, with faith, even in the midst of uncertainty and doubt. May the Star of Faith always burn brightly in the night sky of your life.

Fr. David C. Santos
Pastor

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Today the Magi gaze in deep wonder at what they see: heaven on Earth, Earth in heaven, a human being in God, God in a human being, one whom the whole universe cannot contain now enclosed in a tiny body.

—Saint Peter Chrysologus

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Isaiah 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem!
Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 72

Lord, every nation on earth will adore you.

SECOND READING

Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters:
You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation.

GOSPEL

Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews?
We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage."
When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born.

THE EPIPHANY INVITATION: WHAT GIFTS CAN WE OFFER JESUS?

As the Christian church worldwide celebrates the Solemnity of the Epiphany, what can we resolve to offer Christ?

The three kings are laden with gifts that are not merely precious and expensive. With their offerings, they are recognizing the dignity of the newborn Child: He is King, He is God, He is man. But what gifts can we offer Him on Epiphany (traditionally celebrated on January 6 in many parts of the world)?

Gold, frankincense and myrrh

To the king belongs gold, a symbol of wealth and splendor. The holy of holies in the Temple of Jerusalem was covered with gold, a way of worshiping God, King of the world:

“Solomon overlaid the inside of the house with pure gold. And he drew chains of gold across the front of the inner sanctuary, and he overlaid it with gold. He overlaid the whole house with gold, until all the house was finished. Also the whole altar which was by the inner sanctuary he overlaid with gold” (1 Kings 6:21-22)

Incense is a symbol of prayer that goes up to God comes back to him:

“May my prayer rise up to you like incense; may the lifting up of my hands be like the evening sacrifice” (PS 141:2)

And elsewhere:

“Then another angel with a gold incense burner came and stood at the altar. And a great amount of incense was given to him to mix with the prayers of God’s people as an offering on the gold altar before the throne” (Rev 8:3)

Myrrh is both the fragrance of anointing —

“Your God has anointed you, pouring out the oil of joy on you more than on anyone else. Myrrh, aloe, and cassia perfume your robes. In ivory palaces the music of harps entertains you.” (PS 45:8-9)

— and the announcement of the suffering of the Lord, true man among us. It is written in the Song of Solomon (1:13):

“My beloved is like a fragrant pouch of myrrh spending the night between my breasts.”

Regarding this verse, St. Bernard said:

“Ever since my conversion, I have taken care to hold this bouquet of all the Lord’s sufferings close to my heart. Among all the branches of the fragrant myrrh, I have been careful not to omit either the myrrh that he was watered with on the cross or the myrrh that was used to anoint his body before burial. The whole of Jesus’ life is perfumed with myrrh, from that of the Magi to that of Nicodemus, who “came with a mixture of myrrh and aloes.” (Jn 19:39)

We, too, on this day can bow down and worship Jesus by offering Him gold (almsgiving with our material goods); incense (a renewal of our prayer life); and myrrh (our faith in His humanity that saved us). - Claire Patier
