PASTOR'S COLUMN

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

Loyalty is a quality we value highly. We want our friends to be loyal, our families to be dependable, and our communities to be united by something deeper than convenience or opinion. Every meaningful relationship needs loyalty to remain strong.

This Independence Day weekend 🇺🇸, as our nation begins to mark the 250th anniversary of its founding, we give thanks for the freedoms we have received. Yet this milestone is more than a national birthday; it is an invitation to ask how faithfully we are using our freedom, and what truly anchors our many loyalties.

Among our liberties, religious freedom holds a special place. It is not simply the right to worship privately, but the freedom to let faith form our conscience, guide our service, and shape our contribution to the common good. For Catholics, love of country and love of God need not be rivals. When properly ordered, faith purifies patriotism, and freedom gives faith room to serve.

Our national story has never been without wounds or tensions. We see division, fear, harsh words, and a growing unwillingness to listen. That is why, especially now, our loyalty must be anchored in the Gospel rather than in political rhetoric, ideology, or the passing noise of the moment.

At 250 years, America can be grateful for its past without being blind to its wounds, and hopeful about its future without forgetting that freedom detached from truth can become selfishness or mere license. The Gospel reminds us that true freedom is ordered toward love, responsibility, justice, the dignity of every human person, and, most importantly, the worship of God!

Friends, today's message is clear: we must keep our eyes on Christ. Jesus must be our premier social commentator and influencer. Only with Christ can we help build a society marked by true justice and freedom for all. As our nation commemorates 250 years, may we give thanks for religious liberty by living our faith publicly, peacefully, courageously, and charitably.

May God continue to bless the United States of America, and may He make us faithful stewards of both faith and freedom.

Rev. David C. Santos, Pastor

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

There is no true freedom except in the service of what is good and just.
— Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1733

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING
Zechariah 9:9-10
Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion, shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem! See, your king shall come to you; a just savior is he, meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass. He shall banish the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; the warrior's bow shall be banished, and he shall proclaim peace to the nations. His dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Psalm 145
I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

SECOND READING
Romans 8:9, 11-13
You are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you.

GOSPEL
Matthew 11:25-30
"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light."

HOLY WHYS: DEACON HUGH REPLIES

Dear Deacon Hugh:

I haven't prayed for a long time.
How do I start or restart praying?

Mary

Dear Mary:

Start by understanding prayer is lifting your heart to God, who fashioned you and knows the deepest recesses of your being. Seek God by turning your mind toward him and know that he longs for your return as a father awaits his beloved child. Approach him in simplicity and a contrite heart. Begin with a greeting – an acknowledgement of your absence and your longing to return. Do not be dismayed if your words falter; for even groans and sighs are heard by the Lord who reads the heart.

Incline your heart to him. Just be in his presence. Look at him as he looks at you. God speaks not in a whirlwind but in a gentle whisper. Converse with him. Remember he wishes to commune with you, inviting you into his inexhaustible mercy. Hear his voice in sacred scripture: his Word.
When you are ready, close by saying a prayer from your childhood: an Our Father or a Hail Mary; then go in peace.

Thank you for your question.

Deacon Hugh

If you have a question you would like to ask, please email Deacon Hugh at hkeffer@saintjamesparish.org.

St. James Parishioners,

Thanks to your generous donations and your participation in our bake sale and car wash, the cost for our trip to this summer's Steubenville Youth Conference is now covered.

We could not have done it without you!!

Thank you for making our youth see what an important part of our St. James family they are and how much they are loved and cared for!!💕

On July 10 to 12, twenty-one teenagers from our parish, five chaperones (also parishioners from St. James), and Fr. David will be travelling to Ohio to attend the Steubenville Youth Conference at the campus of Franciscan University. The conference will be attended by two thousand teens from all over the USA and Canada whose goal is to draw closer to God and learn how to make Him the center of their lives. In this three-day conference, they will listen to engaging and inspiring Catholic speakers, attend the sacraments, and build friendships with other teens who like them are excited about their faith.

We ask that you please keep our group in your prayers and know that you will all be travelling with us, as we will keep you and any special intentions you may have in our prayers as well.

Thank you again for your generosity and for your prayers for our teens!
God bless you! 🕊️

St. James is Giving Back to Springfield. Can you Lend a Helping Hand?

A few years ago, Saint James adopted a plot of land called Dr. Eckel's Island in Springfield, just down the street from our parish.

The parish is responsible for the upkeep of the island. Together, we can make this a light task while giving back to the community.

If you have a lawnmower and are able to mow the grass on the island one or more weekends, please scan the QR code.

You can mow at any time you're available that weekend.

Thank you for your consideration. God bless.

For we are co-workers in God's service; you are God's field, God's building. - Corinthians 3:9
