Reflection on the Readings

The Feasts of the Holy Trinity (which we celebrate this weekend) and the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ (which we celebrate next week) are what we would call “idea feasts.”

Most feasts celebrate an event – like Christmas, Easter, Pentecost – “idea feasts,” however, celebrate a theological truth. The Church places these feasts here to ensure that we remember certain truths about God.

The feast of the Holy Trinity reminds us that we believe in one God in three persons.

The story is told of a priest who was summoned to offer the Sacrament of Anointing to a man who had collapsed in a store. The priest knelt beside the man and began with question: “Do you believe in God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit?”

The man opened one eye and said to the priest, “Here I am dying, and you ask me a riddle.”

That may reflect how some of us think about the Trinity, God as three persons in one.

A mystery that has been explained in many ways down through the ages:

- St. Patrick used the three-leaf clover,
- I’ve heard it explained using water – water can take three forms – ice, water, and steam – yet it remains H₂O.
- Think of yourself – you may be a mother, a daughter, sister - one person three different identities.
- A more modern example: We all know when our computer freezes on us, we simply hit CTRL, ALT, DEL. Three keys one function.

No matter how we describe the Trinity, our examples will always fall short and miss the mark, because examples/analogies are imperfect.

Again, the theological “idea,” the theological truth is this - there is the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – three persons, One God.

So, what does it really have to do with us?

How do we make this more than just an idea?

The answer, simply and profoundly, is in today’s feast. We are made in the IMAGE and LIKENESS of God. And God is communion. That’s it!

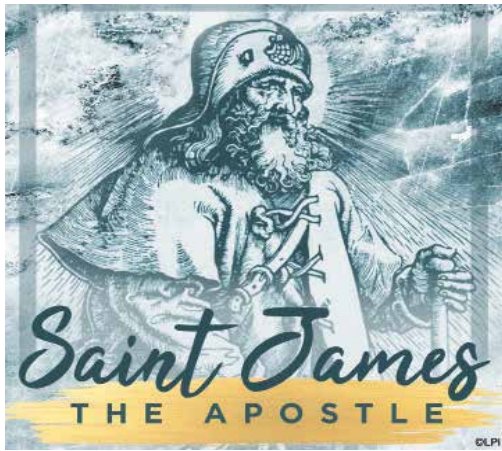

The fact we are made for relationship reveals something about the Divine Artist who fashioned us. If we are made in the image of God, then God must be relational – thus, we are as well.

Rev. David C. Santos, Pastor

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

When the Spirit dwells in us, the Word who bestows the Spirit is in us too, and the Father is present in the Word.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Proverbs 8:22-31

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there, when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep; when he made firm the skies above, when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; when he set for the sea its limit, so that the waters should not transgress his command; then was I beside him as his craftsman, and I was his delight day by day, playing before him all the while, playing on the surface of his earth; and I found delight in the human race."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 8

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

SECOND READING

Romans 5:1-5

Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

GOSPEL

John 16:12-15

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now. But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Steubenville Youth Conference 2025 FUNDRAISER

St. James Parishioners, WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!

We are raising funds to support our group of young teenagers who want to attend this summer's Steubenville Youth Conference (July 11-13, 2025).

It is a life-changing experience, and we want to make sure all who registered can attend, regardless of whether they can afford it or not. These funds we raise will ensure that the cost will not be a barrier for any teen wanting to participate.

Please prayerfully consider supporting our teens who want to take part in this amazing opportunity to grow in their faith by hearing from engaging and inspiring Catholic speakers, attending the sacraments, and building friendships with other teens who like them are excited about their faith.

No donation is too small.

If interested in donating, please scan the QR code or contact Ana Serra-Prescott. If using the QR code, you will be able to select for your donation to go to sponsor a specific participant or to the general cost of the trip, which will first help any teen in need of financial assistance to attend and then pay for any other expenses to make the trip happen.

If you prefer to give your donation with cash or a check, please make sure you put it in an envelope stating it is a donation for the Steubenville Youth Conference and drop it off at the rectory or the collection basket.

Thank you for your generosity and prayers for our teens!

A HEARTFELT THANK YOU AND A WARM WELCOME

Dear Parishioners,

As we gather in faith and community, I would like to take a moment to express our deepest gratitude to our outgoing parish trustees, Mrs. Janet Petino and Mr. John Pflug. Their dedication and faithful service over these many years have been a cornerstone of our parish life here at St. James. Janet and John have diligently and lovingly worked to support our mission, ensuring that our parish remains a vibrant and Christ-centered place for all. Their contributions have been invaluable, and their legacy will continue to inspire us. On behalf of the Saint James parish community, I offer a heartfelt THANK YOU! ❤️

At the same time, I am pleased to announce the appointment of our new trustees, Ms. Rita Lombardi and Mr. Dennis McNany. Both Rita and Dennis are esteemed members of our parish Finance Council and have been actively involved in our community. I have personally been awestruck by their commitment to our beloved parish. From ensuring that the parish leadership remain good stewards of the parish's finances, to their active leadership role in ongoing parish Campus Redevelopment Project, and many other ministerial roles, their leadership has and will undoubtedly guide us as we move forward. These appointments have been made by me, your pastor, and have received the approval of the Cardinal Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Newark.

This transition marks a significant moment in the life of our parish. It is a time to honor the many accomplishments of Janet and John, while also looking ahead with hope and determination. We endeavor to build a parish that honors the past and works to create a vibrant future for generations to come.

Please join me in thanking Janet and John for their years of service and welcoming Rita and Dennis as they step into their new roles. Together, we will continue to center our parish in hope as we grow in the faith of Jesus Christ.

In Christ's Peace,

Rev. David C. Santos, Pastor

ISLAND ADVENTURE

St. James is Giving Back to Springfield. Can you Lend a Helping Hand?

A few years ago, Saint James adopted a plot of land called Dr. Eckel's Island in Springfield, just down the street from our parish.

The parish is responsible for the upkeep of the island. Together, we can make this a light task while giving back to the community.

If you have a lawnmower and are able to mow the grass on the island one or more weekends, please click on the Flocknote newsletter sign-up link or scan the QR code.

You can mow at any time you're available that weekend.

Thank you for your consideration.
God bless.

*For we are co-workers in God's service;
you are God's field, God's building.

A LETTER FROM CARDINAL TOBIN

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The peace of Christ our Redeemer be with you.

I write to you today as a witness to your deep faith, your love for the Church, and the vibrant diversity that makes our Archdiocese a sign of hope.

Yet, the realities we face as a Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of Newark are both urgent and undeniable: parish membership, Mass attendance, and sacramental participation have declined. The number of priests to serve as pastors is decreasing. And still, the population of our region continues to grow, offering new and fertile ground for evangelization.

I believe the Holy Spirit is inviting us to something new.

Today, I am announcing an archdiocesan initiative called We Are His Witnesses. This is not simply another program. It is a journey of renewal—one that asks each of us to discern, with courage, humility and faith where God is leading us.

Together, we will reflect on three essential questions:

- 1. Where are we now?
- 2. Where is God calling us?
- 3. How will we get there together?

This effort will focus on how we evangelize, care for one another in our parishes, and ensure our parishes are strong and sustainable for the future. This process calls for an honest evaluation of current practices and structures. Some ministries will be renewed; some parish alignments may change. Over time, mergers or closures will be necessary. These conversations and decisions will not always be easy, but as members of one body—the Church – we will support one another throughout this journey.

To guide this effort, I have asked Bishop Michael Saporito and an Archdiocesan Planning Commission to collaborate with pastors and parish leaders across our four counties. But the success of this initiative depends on each one of us. I want to hear from you.

We have already begun by listening through a survey called the Disciples Maker Index —and we will continue listening in the months ahead. I invite you to be part of this journey. Learn more at WeAreHisWitnesses.org, where you'll find a brief video message from me and updates on our progress.

My friends, we are not alone. We are His witnesses—called to proclaim the joy of the Gospel in a world that needs it more than ever. I ask you to join me in this sacred work. Let us walk forward in faith, guided by the Spirit, and united in hope.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ the Redeemer,

Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Archbishop of Newark

Do you know someone who...

Was never baptized, or was baptized in another Christian denomination, and has expressed interest in becoming Catholic? Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist? Has a child over the age of seven who has not been baptized?

Saint James the Apostle Church offers an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teachings and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. There are separate sessions for adults and for children/youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, your insights and your faith story in a warm, accepting setting.

And, if we meet or exceed our stretch goal in funds collected by June 30th the parish will be eligible for a 2% assessment rate reduction.
