Reflection on the Readings

It's not often that a human being is big enough to trump a Sunday observance! But the two men we honor today do just that; Mary and John the Baptist are the only others with the liturgical clout to do the same. Consider that Saints Peter and Paul, taken together, are the church—that is, they embody two significant aspects of church which incorporate the whole and cannot be separated without losing something vital. Those aspects might be defined as action and reason. Peter is a doer, and Paul is a thinker. One trait isn't much good without the other.

Peter, the man of action, operates on a hair-trigger of responsiveness whenever a challenge arises. A preacher passes along the shoreline and says, "Come follow me"—and Peter is gone before the boat is sufficiently docked. Peter drops his nets into the water upon the Lord's command even after a night of fruitless efforts, dragging in a miracle catch as a result. He leaps into the water and tries to walk across its surface because Jesus invites him to. He blurts out: "You are the Christ," when asked by Jesus who others say Jesus is.

Peter draws a sword when Jesus is ambushed at the Garden of Gethsemane, then swears impulsively that he will never, ever deny his Lord—and then denies him three times before the night is out. Three days later he runs at once to the tomb because of a report that it's empty. The Holy Spirit hardly rushes into the upper room in tongues of fire before Peter is out in the street, telling what he knows to the astonished morning crowds. Peter is a doer—and his impulsive actions are both courageous and sometimes wanting in premeditation. Which is where Paul comes in.

Paul is a scholar: a man of law, philosophy, and debate. He spent the first half of his life contemplating right action according to the school of the Pharisees. This led him to the decision to persecute Christians, which was the only logical conclusion (staying in your head all the time can lead to a disastrous lack of proportionality). But then an experience "on the road" derails Paul's rational convictions. The mystical element can do that to a person.

Paul continues to think his way through the Judeo-Christian conundrum. How do you reconcile the demands of divine law and divine mercy? How do you live in the Kingdom while remaining in the world? Paul hits the pause button on Peter's relentless action. He knows that theological reflection can sometimes change the course you're on completely.

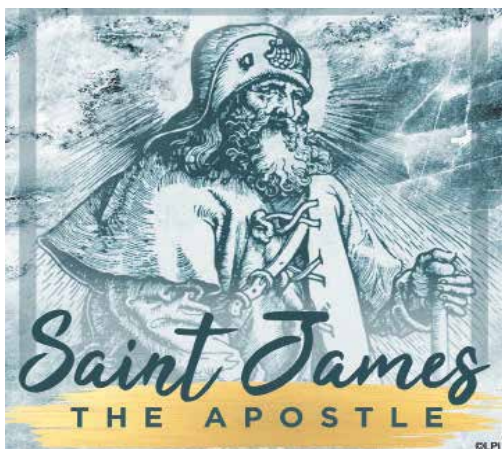

As I said earlier, "Peter is a doer, and Paul is a thinker. One trait isn't much good without the other." I think the Church, in commemorating these hugely important apostles on a Sunday, is giving us a hint that we too, in our discipleship, should strive to be both doers and thinkers.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Acts 12:1-11

Suddenly the angel of the Lord stood by him and a light shone in the cell. He tapped Peter on the side and awakened him, saying, "Get up quickly." The chains fell from his wrists. The angel said to him, "Put on your belt and your sandals." He did so. Then he said to him, "Put on your cloak and follow me." So he followed him out, not realizing that what was happening through the angel was real; he thought he was seeing a vision.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 34

The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

SECOND READING

2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

The Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly Kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL

Matthew 16:13-19

He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter said in reply, "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus said to him in reply, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah. For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven."

A LETTER FROM CARDINAL TOBIN

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The peace of Christ our Redeemer be with you.

I write to you today as a witness to your deep faith, your love for the Church, and the vibrant diversity that makes our Archdiocese a sign of hope.

Yet, the realities we face as a Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of Newark are both urgent and undeniable: parish membership, Mass attendance, and sacramental participation have declined. The number of priests to serve as pastors is decreasing. And still, the population of our region continues to grow, offering new and fertile ground for evangelization.

I believe the Holy Spirit is inviting us to something new.

Today, I am announcing an archdiocesan initiative called We Are His Witnesses. This is not simply another program. It is a journey of renewal—one that asks each of us to discern, with courage, humility and faith where God is leading us.

Together, we will reflect on three essential questions:

1. Where are we now?
2. Where is God calling us?
3. How will we get there together?

This effort will focus on how we evangelize, care for one another in our parishes, and ensure our parishes are strong and sustainable for the future. This process calls for an honest evaluation of current practices and structures. Some ministries will be renewed; some parish alignments may change. Over time, mergers or closures will be necessary. These conversations and decisions will not always be easy, but as members of one body—the Church – we will support one another throughout this journey.

To guide this effort, I have asked Bishop Michael Saporito and an Archdiocesan Planning Commission to collaborate with pastors and parish leaders across our four counties. But the success of this initiative depends on each one of us. I want to hear from you.

We have already begun by listening through a survey called the Disciples Maker Index —and we will continue listening in the months ahead. I invite you to be part of this journey. Learn more at WeAreHisWitnesses.org, where you'll find a brief video message from me and updates on our progress.

My friends, we are not alone. We are His witnesses—called to proclaim the joy of the Gospel in a world that needs it more than ever. I ask you to join me in this sacred work. Let us walk forward in faith, guided by the Spirit, and united in hope.

May God bless you and your loved ones.

Sincerely yours in Christ the Redeemer,

Cardinal Joseph W. Tobin, C.Ss.R.
Archbishop of Newark

ISLAND ADVENTURE

St. James is Giving Back to Springfield. Can you Lend a Helping Hand?

A few years ago, Saint James adopted a plot of land called Dr. Eckel's Island in Springfield, just down the street from our parish.

The parish is responsible for the upkeep of the island. Together, we can make this a light task while giving back to the community.

If you have a lawnmower and are able to mow the grass on the island one or more weekends, please click on the Flocknote newsletter sign-up link or scan the QR code.

You can mow at any time you're available that weekend.

Thank you for your consideration.
God bless.

*For we are co-workers in God's service;
you are God's field, God's building.
- Corinthians 3:9*

STEUBENVILLE YOUTH CONFERENCE 2025 FUNDRAISER

St. James Parishioners,
WE NEED YOUR HELP!!!

Thank you to all who have already donated to help us make this trip happen!! ❤️

Although we are closer to it, we still have not met our goal and could use your help.

We are raising funds to support our group of 17 young teenagers who will be attending this summer's Steubenville Youth Conference (July 11-13, 2025). Your donation helps us make sure the trip is affordable for everyone attending and money is not an option.

Please prayerfully consider supporting our teens who want to take part in this amazing opportunity to draw closer to God and learn how to make Him the center of their lives.

In this conference, they will join two thousand teens from all over the USA for a three-day conference where they will listen to engaging and inspiring Catholic speakers, attend the sacraments, and build friendships with other teens who like them are excited about their faith.

No donation is too small.

If interested in donating, please scan the QR code or contact Ana Serra-Prescott. If using the QR code, you will be able to select for your donation to go to sponsor a specific participant or to the general cost of the trip, which will first help any teen in need of financial assistance to attend and then pay for any other expenses to make the trip happen.

If you prefer to give your donation with cash or a check, please make sure you put it in an envelope stating it is a donation for the Steubenville Youth Conference and drop it off at the rectory or the collection basket.

Thank you for your generosity and for your prayers for our teens! God bless you!
