REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

Palm Sunday draws us into a powerful contrast—joyful cries of “Hosanna!” give way to the silence of the Cross. In one liturgy, we move from celebration to suffering, reminding us how quickly enthusiasm can fade when faith becomes costly.

As we listen to the Passion, one detail stands out: Jesus does not blame. He does not accuse, scapegoat, or lash out. Instead, He remains faithful to the mission entrusted to Him by the Father. While we often look for someone or something to blame when life is painful or unjust, Jesus shows us another way—the way of trust, surrender, and love.

Holy Week invites us to reflect on what we can control. We may not be able to change our circumstances, but we can choose how we respond. The Passion assures us that God can transform even suffering and injustice into a path toward life.

As we enter this most sacred week, may we walk with Christ—not in blame or fear, but in faith—trusting that God is present even in the darkness.

Rev. David C. Santos, Pastor

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Not all of us are expected to die a martyr’s death, but we are all called to the pursuit of Christian virtue.

Our next Family Faith session is on April 19.

SUNDAY READINGS

AT THE PROCESSION WITH PALMS

Matthew 21:1-11

The crowds preceding him and those following kept crying out and saying: "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord; hosanna in the highest."

FIRST READING

Isaiah 50:4-7

The Lord GOD is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 22

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

SECOND READING

Philippians 2:6-11

Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God something to be grasped.

GOSPEL

Matthew 26:14—27:66 OR
Matthew 27:11-54

And behold, the veil of the sanctuary was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth quaked, rocks were split, tombs were opened, and the bodies of many saints who had fallen asleep were raised. And coming forth from their tombs after his resurrection, they entered the holy city and appeared to many. The centurion and the men with him who were keeping watch over Jesus feared greatly when they saw the earthquake and all that was happening, and they said, "Truly, this was the Son of God!"

HOLY WHYS: DEACON HUGH REPLIES

Dear Deacon Hugh:

Help straighten something out for me. The church has Easter and an Easter Season, but what is a Little Easter?

A Friend

Dear Friend:

Let me share with you a beautiful truth that lies at the heart of our faith. Every Sunday, when Christians gather in worship, we are not simply marking the passage of another week—we are celebrating a “little Easter.” That’s right! For the Church, Sunday is far more than a day of rest. It is the Lord’s Day, the day when Jesus Christ rose in victory from the grave. This means that each Sunday is a reminder of the new creation brought forth by our risen Lord. Pope John Paul II, in his apostolic letter Dies Domini, beautifully described Sunday as our “weekly Easter”—a living, ongoing celebration of Christ’s triumph over death. While the phrase “little Easter” may not appear in every official document, it is a powerful way to summarize what Sunday means for believers across the world. This idea is rooted in ancient Christian tradition, which teaches that every time we come together on Sunday, we step into the light of Resurrection morning. Each Sunday calls us to remember and rejoice in the hope, joy, and new life found in Jesus Christ.

So, friend, when you prepare your heart for worship each week, let Sunday remind you that Christ is alive! Let every “little Easter” renew your faith and fill your soul with the promise of eternal life. God bless you.

Deacon Hugh

If you have a question you would like to ask, please email Deacon Hugh at hkeffer@saintjamesparish.org.

WE NEED YOUR HELP!

We are raising funds to support our group of young teenagers who want to attend this summer's Steubenville Youth Conference.

We hope that many young people will be able to join this life-changing experience and these funds we raise will ensure that the cost will not be a barrier for any teen wanting to participate.

Please prayerfully consider supporting our teens who want to take part in this amazing opportunity to grow in their faith by hearing from engaging and inspiring Catholic speakers, attending the sacraments, and building friendships with other teens who like them are excited about their faith.

No donation is too small.

Donations will go directly towards this trip. If interested in donating, please use the QR code below or contact Mrs. Serra-Prescott. If using the QR code, you will be able to select for your donation to go to sponsor a specific participant or to the general cost, which will first help any teen in need of financial assistance to attend and then pay for any other expenses to make the trip happen.

Thank you for your generosity and for your prayers for our teens!
