PASTOR'S COLUMN

RELECTION ON THE READINGS

Most of us are scared to death of the implications of the Gospel story of the poor widow and her two small coins. It's as challenging as that other teaching we try not to think about, the one where Jesus tells the thoroughly obedient man to sell all he has and join the disciples.

I'm first to admit, I'm not about to "go and sell everything"—at least not yet. But to put one out of every two extra pennies at the service of my neighbor seems the greatest good I might do. Why not buy a pair of shoes—and write a check to Catholic Relief Services for the same amount? It's a far cry from what the widow did, but it's moving in the right direction.

I'm reminded of Saint Vincent de Paul, at the close of his virtuous life, being admonished by one of his patrons to slow down. "You've done so much good, what else can you expect to do?" she demanded. "More," he replied. We can always do more.

Fr. David C. Santos, Pastor

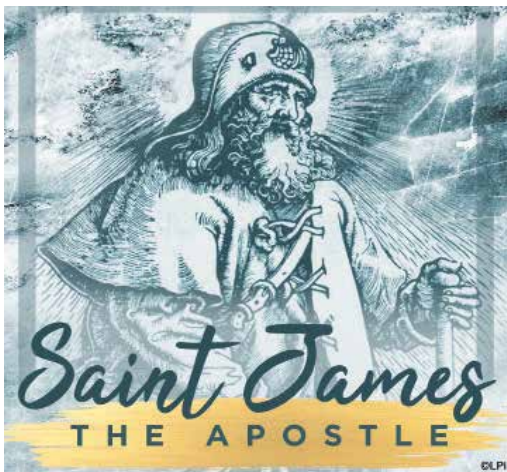

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

The poor widow cast only two pennies into the treasury; yet because she gave all she had it is said of her that she surpassed all the rich in offering gifts to God.

—Saint Jerome (347-419)

Morning Mass will be celebrated at 8:30am.

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

1 Kings 17:10-16

For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'" She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 146

Praise the Lord, my soul!

SECOND READING

Hebrews 9:24-28

But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

GOSPEL

Mark 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

Full Mass readings can be accessed at uscgb.org

Monday, December 9, 2024 is now a Holy Day of Obligation

Mass will be celebrated at 7pm

In 2024, Dec. 8 is the Second Sunday of Advent, so the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is transferred to Monday, Dec. 9. Previously, when the date was transferred, the obligation was abrogated. That will no longer be true. On Oct. 10, the USCCB received word from the Dicastery for Legislative Text that "the feast must be observed as a day of obligation on the day to which it is transferred." In light of this new directive, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, Monday, Dec. 9, is to be observed as a holy day of obligation.

We are all aware of the recent devastation that has been caused by Hurricane Helene and Hurricane Milton. The impact upon the Southeastern United States continues to unfold, affecting countless lives.

WHY DO CATHOLICS LIGHT CANDLES FOR THE DEAD?

Lighting votive candles for deceased loved ones is an ancient tradition that is still practiced by many Catholics around the world.

One of the most enduring traditions of popular piety in the Catholic Church is the practice of lighting a votive candle for a deceased loved one.

Many Catholic churches throughout the world have an area dedicated to the lighting of votive candles.

Symbolism of candles

"I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

- John 8:12

At the Easter Vigil, when the deacon or priest enters the darkened church with the single Easter candle, he intones, "Christ, our Light." To which the congregation replies, "Thanks be to God." This recalls how Jesus came into our world of sin and death to bring the light of God to us.

Candles at early Christian tombs

Besides being used to illuminate the places where the early Christians celebrated Mass, candles were also lighted at the tombs of martyrs. Father William Saunders explains that "there is evidence that lit candles or oil lamps were burned at the tombs of saints, particularly martyrs, by the 200s, and before sacred images and relics by the 300s."

Fr. Edward Looney wrote in an article for Aleteia that, "The flickering flame becomes a reminder to the petitioner and all who see it that in the darkest moment of a person's life, Christ's light shines, illuminating the darkness."

The candles also represent our prayers for a deceased loved one and while they aren't a required element of prayer, the candles have a great deal of symbolism and can comfort us in our moment of sorrow.

Lighting candles for the dead has a long and rich history in the Catholic Church and is not meant to be any type of superstition or ancestor worship, but is a reminder of Christ's light in this world and the next.

DID YOU KNOW?

Holy Orders

In the Sacrament of Holy Orders, baptized men are ordained to serve the Catholic Church as deacons, priests, and bishops. Through this sacrament, the Catholic Church continues the mission of that Jesus Christ first gave to the Apostles---the special mission of preaching the Good News and leading and serving the Catholic Church. Those ordained in the Sacrament of Holy Orders receive the grace necessary to carry out their ministry to the faithful and are imprinted with an indelible sacramental character.

In Summary, Sacraments are effective signs given to us by Jesus through which we share in God's life and the most important celebrations of the Church.
