PASTOR'S COLUMN

RELECTION ON THE READINGS

As we come to the end of the liturgical year of the Church's calendar, the Church celebrates the Feast of Christ the King. When we think about it, it's kind of funny that as American Catholics we honor Jesus as King. There aren't many kings or queens today, and those that do exist are usually figureheads.

So, this feast may seem out of place and even comical, like a joke. And it's technically appropriate...you see, a joke occurs at the juxtaposition of two incompatible, absurd elements. We laugh when incompatible things come together.

- Like when you have a sophisticated man in a suit, who is all well-put-together trips as he's getting out of his nice car.
- Or when a dog acts like a human or a cat plays the piano...we laugh

We find these things funny because it's the coming together of incongruent, absurd or incompatible things. G.K Chesterton appreciated this. He said that "All of Christianity rests upon a kind of sacred jest or joke." What he was getting at is at the heart of Christianity. Christians claim that God became man; that divinity and humanity met; that Jesus Christ is God and is human. This is kind of like a sacred jest or joke because it presents two things that you wouldn't ordinarily associate coming together –humanity and divinity, meekness and strength, power and love.

From the beginning, Jesus on the cross has been seen by the world as a joke – something that doesn't make sense - the coming together of two incongruent, incompatible things...like the sophisticated man in the suit who trips and falls, or the cat that plays the piano.

So how do we make sense of this outrageous Christian claim that this man on a cross is a King? And what does this claim have to do with us and our lives? I believe that the celebration of this Solemnity helps us to remember who Jesus is as our Lord and King, but it also reminds us of who we ought to be. You see, on the cross Jesus reunites two things that we tend to separate, two things that are seemingly incongruent and incompatible. On the cross, Jesus the King, reconnects Love and Power.

Friends, on the Cross, Love and Power coincide, they are reunited again. So, sure, within the framework of a sinful world I can see how the thought of Christ as King is laughable. But in terms of a transformed world; in terms of the deepest truths, it's not a joke! In fact, it's the most serious thing you can conceive of!

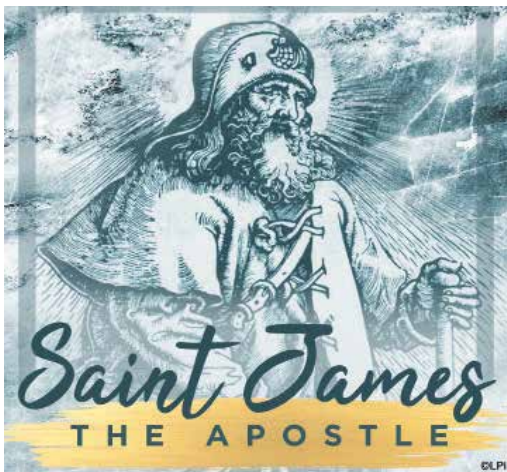

Fr. David C. Santos, Pastor

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

A good leader inspires people to have confidence in the leader; a great leader inspires people to have confidence in themselves.

—Eleanor Roosevelt

SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING

Daniel 7:13-14

His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away, his kingship shall not be destroyed.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalms 93

The Lord is king; he is robed in majesty.

SECOND READING

Revelation 1:5-8

Behold, he is coming amid the clouds, and every eye will see him, even those who pierced him. All the peoples of the earth will lament him. Yes. Amen.

"I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "the one who is and who was and who is to come, the almighty."

GOSPEL

John 18:33b-37

Jesus answered, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If my kingdom did belong to this world, my attendants would be fighting to keep me from being handed over to the Jews. But as it is, my kingdom is not here." So Pilate said to him, "Then you are a king?" Jesus answered, "You say I am a king. For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice."

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION 2024-2025

Last Sunday, at our November Sunday Family Faith session we talked about the topic of vocations and our universal call to holiness.

Although our next Family Faith session is on Sunday, December 8th, we will also have an event to celebrate the feast of St. Nicholas on Friday, December 6th at 6PM in the church. We invite all our Family Faith families to attend as it will be a fun event to celebrate this Saint who brings so much joy to all of us, but especially to children.

Our Confirmation preparation groups

Our Confirmation Year 1 group had their retreat with the Confirmation Year 1 group of St. Bartholomew Church, last Sunday. The candidates and their parents started the retreat celebrating Mass together and then proceeded to the St. Bartholomew School gym, where the presenter, Mr. Ray Boswell, shared with them the importance of having a close relationship with God and how much we are all loved by Him through an interactive presentation using clay and his potter's wheel.

This past Friday, November 22, a group of Confirmation candidates came together to collect and put together 50 Cold Weather kits to be donated to Bridges in Summit. The kits will be distributed by Bridges volunteers to help make living outside a little more bearable for people who are not able to find shelter.

NEXT SESSIONS:

Family Faith Sunday – Sunday, December 8. At those Masses the children who will be receiving their Sacraments of First Reconciliation and First Holy Eucharist this year, will receive their enrollment blessing. Let's keep them in our prayers as they prepare for such an important time in their lives.

Confirmation Year 1 group – Next sessions are on Tuesday, December 3 from 7PM to 8:30PM in church AND Tuesday, December 10 at 7PM in church (this second session will begin in church but will conclude with a service project in the school gym. We will finish at our usual time, 8:30PM).

Confirmation Year 2 group – Tuesday, December 10 from 7PM to 8:30PM (the session will be for both Confirmation groups together. It will start in church but we will move to the School gym after our presentations to do a service project).
