Reflection on the Readings

We hear in this Sunday's first reading from the Prophet Isaiah - God's ways are not our ways. God's thoughts are not like ours. You can say that again! Isaiah insists that the divine perspective is as up, up, and away from ours as heaven is from Earth. Given that chasm, we're not going to figure out the divine will by doing the math or weighing the scales or applying pure reason. The only way we're going to see things God's way is to "seek the Lord while he may be found"—to seek communion with the Holy One. And to do that we have to empty ourselves of our "scoundrel" ways and "wicked" thoughts. In doing so we provide a place for God's thoughts and ways to enter and inhabit us.

Sound easy? Try letting go of your way of thinking and doing before you answer. Consider the last time you passed judgment on another person for not behaving as you would or for not responding in the way you think is appropriate. It's very, very hard for us not to insist on "our will being done"—at least on Earth, and very possibly even in heaven. So often we create God in our own image by presuming that God shares our values. Of course, the goal is always that we share God's values. But it's all too human for us to get that backwards.

- Fr. David Santos, Pastor

Quote of the Week

"The true, the only perfection is not to embrace such and such a way of life; it is to do God's will. It is to lead the kind of life God wants . . . "

Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

GOSPEL

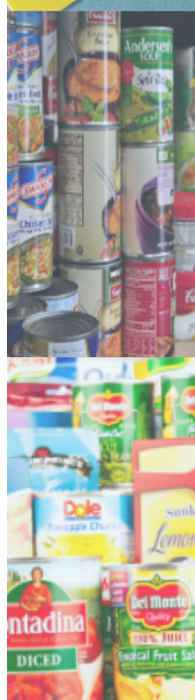

Matthew 20:1-16a

Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

SAINT JAMES MINISTRIES & EVENTS

Family Faith Formation

Last Sunday we had our first Family Faith Formation session of the 2023-2024 school year. It was so beautiful to see the families together at Mass, the Church was so full of life!! Having everyone back in the school and hearing the children talk to their parents about what they did in class was priceless. Talking with a family before they left, I heard their son remind them they need to make sure they pray before bed, and he actually said "we can do it after our bedtime story". It filled my heart with joy and I know the Lord was smiling down.

Thank you to all of you, St. James Parish Community, for your continuous prayers for the families in the Family Faith program and the catechists.

Thank you to the catechists for sharing your faith with the children with so much love and joy, and bringing them closer to Jesus.

A reminder that the Confirmation groups will begin their sessions in October. Both groups will begin with a parent and child meeting in the Church.

Confirmation 1 – 7th grade group will meet on Tuesday, October 3rd at 7PM.

Confirmation 2 – 8th grade group will meet on Tuesday, October 17th at 7PM.

If you have not registered your child yet, please do so ASAP, this way your child will not miss any important information. The registration form and the calendar dates for both, the Family Faith Formation sessions for 1st to 6th graders, and the Confirmation sessions for 7th and 8th graders can be found on the Family Faith Formation page of the parish website,
<https://saintjamestheapostle.org/>.

For More Information, Please Contact:

If you need any further information on how to register your child, please reach out to Ana Serra-Prescott at aprescott@saintjamesparish.org, (973)376-2061, or in person either at the rectory during office hours or if you see her after Mass or around town.

5 REASONS TO STAY UNTIL THE END OF MASS

*Do you need some motivation to stay a little longer to attend the entire Mass?
Do you know some other people who might?*

Here are some reasons to stay until the end of Mass:

1. Communion Is About Communing: When we receive communion, we receive Jesus himself. When we eat and run it is like visiting a friend and the moment he is able to sit down and be present to us we jump up and run out the door yelling, "It was so great to spend time with you, see you next week!" Communion is about communing with our Lord and Savior. In order to commune, we have to actually savor this special time with him and take a few moments to be with our Lord.

2. It's Not Nice to Be Rude: Before Mass in the convent, we have a half hour of silent meditation on the Gospel. Sometimes I am late. I walk quickly in with my head down, embarrassed that everyone can see that I slept in. Recently, I realized that my motivation to be on time should not be to avoid embarrassment but because I am going to see Jesus. Why are we often more concerned with other people's reactions than we are with Jesus? We think, I have to run because I have so much to do, so-and-so is waiting for me! But why is it easy for us to leave early and come late when it is the Creator of the Universe who is hoping to see us?

3. Mass Is Not An Activity on a To-Do List: Often when I see people running out of Mass, it seems like they are checking off an activity on their to-do list and want to be done with it. The Christian life is not a to-do list. It is an invitation to be in relationship with God. If we are going to Mass out of a sense of responsibility, sure we may be avoiding mortal sin, but barely scraping by in the avoidance of mortal sin is not the calling of our spiritual life. We are called to much more. We are called to relationship, to holiness, to transformation.

4. The Final Blessing Is Important: On the Day of Atonement, Zechariah, the father of John the Baptist, had the honor of going into the holy of holies on the day the angel told him that he and his wife would have a child. The people eagerly waited outside for him to give them a blessing after he offered incense. When Zechariah came out mute because he did not believe the angel's message, the lack of a blessing amplifies the dishonor and the tragedy of losing his voice. I am sure the people went home very disappointed. Blessings are precious. When a priest, who by his ordination is configured to Christ, gives his final blessing, we are being blessed by God himself. If Jesus were standing ready to give us a blessing before we left Mass and went back out into the world, wouldn't you wait for it?

5. You Get MORE Grace: According to the Catechism, "the fruits of the sacraments ... depend on the disposition of the one who receives them" (CCC 1128). There is a power in the sacraments in and of themselves, but how much of that power seeps into our souls and plays out in our lives depends on our disposition. If we are rushing out of church after communion, chances are our disposition is not such that we are reverentially aware of the amazing fact that we are consuming the body, blood, soul and divinity of God himself. It's heavy stuff. And it deserves a disposition of great respect, if only because we all need all the grace we can get.
