PASTOR'S COLUMN

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

There is an old story about a father who had been separated from his son. The son had run away, and the father searched for him for months without success. Finally, in one last effort, he placed a simple message in a Madrid newspaper: "Dear Manuel, meet me in front of this newspaper office at noon on Saturday. All is forgiven. I love you. Your Father."

That Saturday, 800 Manuels showed up looking for forgiveness and love from their fathers.

It is a powerful image because, in one way or another, we all know what it is to long for forgiveness. We know what it is to carry hurt, disappointment, anger, or regret. We also know how easily those burdens can become familiar. Sometimes resentment begins to feel like a kind of protection, even though it slowly closes our hearts.

This Sunday, Jesus tells Peter that forgiveness IS NOT a matter of keeping score. That does not mean pretending that wrong was never done. It does not mean excusing injustice or minimizing pain. Forgiveness means allowing God to free us from the weight of what has wounded us, so that bitterness does not take root and poison the rest of our lives.

Without forgiveness, nothing new really happens.
Old wounds may be covered up for a time, but they are not healed.
Old patterns may be managed, but they are not transformed.

Christ invites us to something more: the freedom to ask for mercy, the courage to offer mercy, and the peace that comes when we stop stumbling over what is behind us.

This week also marks the 25th anniversary of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001. For many, the memory of that day remains vivid: the fear, the grief, the heroic sacrifice, and the countless lives forever changed. As we remember those who died, those who mourn them, and those who served with courage in the days that followed, we ask the Lord to deepen in us the desire for healing, reconciliation, and peace. The work of forgiveness does not erase memory, but it allows memory to be held in the light of God's mercy rather than in the shadow of hatred.

So this week, perhaps we can each bring one wound, one resentment, or one regret before the Lord and ask for the grace to begin again. Forgiveness may be among the hardest works of the Christian life, but it leads us to one of Christ's greatest gifts: peace.

Please consider joining us for a special prayer service commemorating the 25th anniversary of September 11th to pray for those who died, to pray for all of our first responders, and to pray for peace in our world. The service will take place on Friday, September 11th at 7pm in our church.

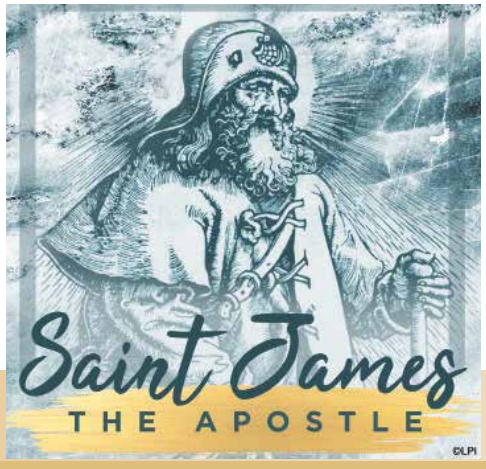
Rev. David C. Santos, Pastor

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

"Nothing makes us so like God as our readiness to forgive."
—Saint John Chrysostom



SUNDAY READINGS

FIRST READING
Sirach 27:30—28:7
Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM
Psalm 103
The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

SECOND READING
Romans 14:7-9
None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

GOSPEL
Matthew 18:21-35
"Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

HOLY WHYS: DEACON HUGH REPLIES

Dear Deacon Hugh:

Thank you for responding to my last question, but the Church appears to lean away from dignity and more toward equality for all. What does the Archdiocese of Newark's say about this?

Anonymous

Dear Anonymous:

Once again, you present a challenging question. In the last letter, we discussed the Pope's encyclical, Magnifica Humanitas, where he outlined and applied traditional Church Social Doctrine to the use and governance of artificial intelligence. This past July, Cardinal Tobin followed up with his own letter supporting and expanding on the themes expressed in the Pope's work. Every person possesses an incomparable dignity because all are created, loved, and called into being by God. Human dignity, he writes, does not depend on personal achievement, productivity, social status, gender, race, ethnicity, or any other condition. No authority, therefore, may legitimately deny or limit the rights that flow from it.

Human dignity, the Cardinal writes, requires us to do more than believe in the dignified treatment of people. Our morals and teaching must guide and shape our decisions about law, access to employment and education, and civic participation. Recognizing the dignity of each person, especially those who are marginalized, excluded, or vulnerable, is essential to building a society that promotes the common good, unity, and peace.

The Archdiocese of Newark, therefore, agrees with Pope Leo. The Cardinal concludes by urging Catholics to read the encyclical and reflect prayerfully on it.

Deacon Hugh

SAINT JAMES TIN CAN AUCTION NEEDS YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO MAKE IT A SUCCESS!

One of the major highlights of the annual Saint James the Apostle Parish Festival is the Tin Can Auction—and your help is needed to make this year's event even more successful than in the past.

The Tin Can Auction is a tricky-tray-type event. Festival goers purchase raffle tickets for prizes donated by area residents and merchants. Saint James needs contributions of prizes—goods, services, event tickets and other items - to make its Tin Can Auction a success.

If you own a business or wish to donate goods, services, event tickets or other items, please contact Antoinette Miller through the Rectory office 973-376-3044 or email tincanauction@saintjamesparish.org.

JOIN THE ST. JAMES CHOIR!

Our choir provides music at the 5:00pm (monthly), 10:00am (twice month), and 12:00pm noon (monthly) Masses, from September through June.

We also enhance liturgies during holy days and special masses.

Rehearsals take place every Thursday in the Church, at 7:00pm and typically last about an hour. All interested members (high school age and older) are welcome to join our community of song and no prior singing experience is necessary. Please contact Philip La Gala with any questions at musicdirector@saintjamesparish.org, or feel free to speak with him after mass.

Our first rehearsal is Thursday, September 17th at 7:00pm in the Church.

"It's the Most Wonderful Time of the Year ..."

These are the words of a very joyous and popular Christmas song. Some parents feel a similar joy at this time of year as students of all ages return to school. For some people who have difficulty finding a break in life, joy is most fleeting. Catholic Charities helps people in all circumstances find hope which leads to joy. Please help us to bring hope by contributing the following to the Donation Bin(s): used clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, tools, stuffed animals, novels, knickknacks, and children's books.
